King of Glory Lutheran Church: Bringing Faith to Life

Valentines Outreach Feb 3rd & 10th

The children will be busy sharing their Valentine wishes and spreading the message of God's love and friendship. They will assemble beary-cute Valentine treat bags that will be filled with candy and delivered to the children at Mesa Crisis Center and Sunshine Acres Children's Home. They will also create beautiful Valentine placemats that will be used to decorate the meal trays at Phoenix Children's Hospital. These outreach projects help the children know they are making Valentine's Day a very special day for other children!

LENTEN OUTREACH BEGINS FEBRUARY 10th

We have chosen the Heifer International Program as our beneficiary again this year. A detailed letter about the program, bank and activity calendar will be sent home on the 10th so that children will have the opportunity to raise money for this worthwhile mission. Once the money is collected, the children will vote for which animals will be purchased. We are looking for people interested in helping
